And Mal-Administration of the Indian Affairs

Some Sensational Developments are Expected Soon

President About to Ask for Secretary Hitchcock's Resignation on Request of Senators When His Eyes Were Opened--A Case of Grafting.

Chicago, Sept. 4—A Washington rests of suspected officials may be looked for.

Involved in the story is a most interesting chapter of American politics of expected in the land scandals in Indian "graft" in official positions, of an effort to secure "protection" through the Indian affairs in Oklahoma. Only a influence of senators and others in high part of the story can be told now, for public life, and of an impudent and to disclose all of it would defeat the nearly successful attempt to get the ends of justice. The scandal is divided into two parts. One is the purpose of speculating in Indian lands by "rings," which fixed up schemes to make competitive bidding at sales a Roosevelt had made up his mind to more farce, presumably with the conclusion of government officials who are stockholders or directors in land companies and trust companies formed for the purpose of speculating in Indian lands.

The other is thieving from the Indians on the reservation in Oklahoma. President and said to him: "For by means of fraudulent allotments of Heaven's sake, Mr. Roosevelt, do not make the mistake of permitting the western senators to induce you to dismiss Mr. Hitchcock. They are after extend by collusion or negligence into His eyes thus opened, the President the interior department here; that a decided not only to keep Hitchcock in rigid investigation is now under way the cabinet, but took an active part in and that in the end a number of are going after the grafters.

RELIANCE

Proudly Flying Three Big American Flags Takes Triumphant Journey to Erie Basin Today Having won Three Successive Races.

Highlands, N. J.—Sept. 4—Proudly once was holding as true as an arrow flying three great American flags on the taffrail and spreaders, Reliance, victorious, escorted by C. Oliver Iselin's Sunbeam and the tender, Moonbeam, and in tow of the tug Guiding Star, left her race moorings in horse shoe shortly after 8 o'clock today and began a triumphant journey to Erie basin. Whistles screamed aboard every sort of steam craft about Sandy Hook and at the top of every mast and pole aloft, the Star and Stripes fluttered in the early morning breeze. Soon after Reliance's departure, Sir Thomas Lipton's Erin started up, followed by Shamrock III, in tow of the tug Cruiser. On the trip up the Narrows, Shamrock followed the proud Yankee cutter at some distance astern, as she did at the finish of the final cup race yesterday, about three miles. She thus seemed to measure her defeat again.

The Reliance followed the challenger on the port tack at 1:03 and both made a long sweep to the southwest on the made it three straight by defeating tack.

SCHOOL GIRL

Hanged Herself Because Father Scolded Her For Receiving a Love Letter from Neighbor Boy.

Lebanon, Ill., Sept. 4—Elsie Duckett, a 16 year old girl, hanged herself because her father, a stern, austere farmer, scolded her for receiving a letter from a neighbor boy, which closed with the following couplet:

"As long as the vine runs round the stump

"I'll be your darling sugar lump."

Wm. Croffley, the lad who wrote the letter was one of the pall-bearers at the funeral. He is overcome with grief that the harmless lines should have brought about the death of his playmate.

GUARDS FIRED

Birmingham, Ala., Sept. 4—Led by Tom Fay, a member of the famous Miller-Duncan gang of safe blowers and murderers who were convicted in Birmingham three years ago, a crowd of white convicts in Pratt Mines prison, attempted to dynamite their way to liberty last night. They were fired on by guards and four were shot, two fatally. They were Tom Fay, serving 18 years, shot in the leg; John Brewer, 7 years, shot in the back, will die; Kinney Brewer, 20 years, shot in abdomen, will die; Thos. Melin, 5 years, shot in the shoulder. James H. Ewing, 20 years, escaped.

BOY RELEASED.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 4—Following the demand by the boy's dead mother's relatives for a searching investigation into the case of John H. Dey, 13, who it is alleged, was forced to confess to mixing poison which killed his stepmother, Mrs. Clin Simpson Dey, counsel for the dead woman's family appeared today and asked for the boy's full discharge. Judge Taylor was greatly astonished and said that an investigation of some kind would have to follow, and adjourned the case to September 16. The boy was released on $2,500 bail.

EVIDENCE

TO SAVE POWERS AND CONVICT TAYLOR.

Strange Story Told by a Kentuckian in Mexico—The Man Has Now Disappeared.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 4—T. G. Roach a lawyer of this city, whose wife was a witness in the Caleb Powers case in Kentucky, made the statement in Juarez, Mexico Wednesday, it is said, that he could produce evidence to clear Powers and convict Taylor. Roach recently returned from Kentucky.

Two police officers of this city went in search of the man as soon as they learned of his boast. They found him in a Juarez saloon and questioned him closely. Their report of what occurred is as follows. Roach said:

"My wife was born in Eastern Kentucky, and she knows every one of the people who are implicated in the Goshen murder. I was born in

New York, Sept. 4.—The police take off their hats to a plucky girl who made possible the capture of a burglar who had looted a One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street flat. She chased the man and catching up with him, gave him a blow on the jaw that dazed him. He staggered into a basement where a crowd held him until the police came. The property he had taken was recovered.

CONTAINS POPE LEO'S HEART.

As customary with the bodies of all popes, the body of Leo XIII. was embalmed before being laid to rest in the chapel that he had built in the church of St. John the Lateran. The heart, however, was removed and placed in a precious urn, and consigned to the church of St. Vincent and St. Anastasius, the parish church of the quirinal. It is a privilege of this church to keep the hearts of the popes, when they are not bequeathed by a formal will of the deceased to the crypts of St. Peter in the vatican. The urn containing the heart of Leo XIII. was conveyed to the church at midnight by Mgrs. Angeli and Marzolini in a closed carriage and immured in the morning in the enclosure of the main altar.

STEVEDORE,

Who is Now a Legislator, May be the Candidate to Succeed United States Senator Foster.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 4.—It is almost settled that State Senator Edward S. Hamilton will be Tacoma's candidate for United States Senator to succeed Senator Foster of this city, when the next Legislature meets. Hamilton is now serving the second term in the State Senate, and has proved the most aggressive leader that Pierce county has ever had in state politics.

He was one of the leaders of the campaign five years ago, which resulted in Senator Foster's election, and has continued to be a staunch supporter of Foster. It seems now uncertain whether or not Foster will be a candidate for re-election by the time the Legislature meets, inasmuch as some elements in local Republican politics do not cordially support him.

Hamilton began life as a stevedore. Then he became boss stevedore, and is now a member of McCabe & Hamilton, a firm which does the major part of the stevedoring on Puget Sound.

PROTOCOL

Of the Wireless Telegraph Conference, Recently Held in Berlin, Made Public at Washington.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 4.—The final protocol of the International Wireless Telegraph Conference, held in Berlin last month, has been made public at the State department. General Greely was chairman of the American Commission. This commission had no authority to make any agreement for the United States, but the protocol embodies in most of the essential features the views expressed by the American commissioners. Another conference will be held and if all delegates have full power the protocol no doubt will be embodied in a treaty for the government of international wireless telegraph communication. The protocol fixes the manner of charging for messages between fixed coast stations and between coast stations and ships, designates what shall be considered coast stations, provides for regulating the traffic as between different companies and systems, and says that the contracting parties shall publish any technical information likely to facilitate or expedite communication between coast stations and ships at sea. Other provisions are:

The wireless station must, unless there should be absolute impossibility, accept in preference requests for help that may come from vessels.

The service of the wireless telegraph stations must be organized as far as practicable so as not to interfere with the service of other stations.

Provision is also made that countries not now in the convention may be admitted on request and promises of compliance with the rules.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys.

If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or, if when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.

This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy.

The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. ENGLAND'S

Bank Rate Increased—Necessary to Forestall Attempted Raid on British Gold Supply.

London, Sept. 4.—The Bank of England rate of discount has been increased from 3 to 4 per cent.

The action of the bank's officials was a great surprise to the stock exchange and caused a general all-round depression, especially in consols. It was thought the rise in the bank rate would hinder the supply for American requirements.

When asked what was the cause and what would be the effect of the increase in the bank rate, Lord Rothschild said:

"Some little time ago a high official of the Bank of Germany announced that it would probably be necessary to raise the German rate in the middle of September.

"I inquired why and he informed me that it was because of the expected demand from mortgages which, in Germany, all fall due Oct. 1, and must be paid in gold or bank notes.

"The German bankers were much averse to the project held out by the Bank of Germany and proceeded to lay hands on all the loose gold they could get.

"The operations culminated in the withdrawal of between $3,500,000 and $4,000,000 in gold from the Bank of England.

The only action left to our bank was to raise the rate. It will teach the German bankers that they cannot play ducats and drakes with the English gold supply."

JNO. TEMPLE GRAVES

Declares Unity of the Caucasian Race Must Be Maintained—Negroes He Says Should Be Kept in Their Own Habitation.

Chicago, Sept. 4—John Temple Graves, of Georgia, delivered an address on "The Problem of the Races," before the 46th convocation of the University of Chicago. He said in part:

"Separation of the races is the way—the only way. If God hath made of one blood all the nations of the earth. He hath also established unto them the metes and bounds of their habitation.

"He did not intend that opposite and antagonistic races should live together. The prejudice of race is a pointing of Providence, and to the antagonism of peoples is the fixed policy by which God peoples the different portions of the universe and establishes the individuality of the nations.

"The act that brought these people together on this continent was a sin of the fathers—a sin of greed, an iniquity of trade—and the sorrow and suffering of the present is for the sin of the past—a sin against nature and a sin against God. The curse can be lifted only when nature is vindicated and humbly out of the way. Let us give God is obeyed. The problem will be him a better chance than he has ever had in history, and let us have done with him. Let us solve his problem—frankly, fearlessly, nobly and speedily.

"It is neither impossible nor impracticable. The elements are willing and the way is in reach. This is not a day of impossibilities. The hand of the Almighty is steadily opening the like freemen upon the mighty issues of the times."

THE COMING STATE CAMPAIGN.

(London, O., Democrat.)

Now that the state convention is over, and the Democratic political sea has placidity, let us look into the situation.

An aggressive, though lengthy platform has been adopted, containing promises of many needed state reforms and a man placed at the head of the ticket, who has the reputation for doing for the people exactly as he promises.

Tom L. Johnson will put up the hottest campaign ever waged by the party in the state. He is the personification of force, backed by a will of iron and a tenacity of purpose seldom combined in any one man. Such personality makes warm friends and bitter enemies. Mr. Johnson has both.

He will go into the campaign with the energy of a tornado and will crush his way through to victory if any mortal man can do so by force.

Such men are great leaders, great generals and great fighters. They are opportune men in a great crisis. When in the wrong they are a curse to humanity.

We sincerely believe Mr. Johnson is making for the right and that his sincerity of purpose is questioned only by his enemies.

While the editors of The Democrat, as their choice between the two gubernatorial candidates have always favored Mr. Zimmerman because of his conservative ideas and methods and because the warm personal friendship of many years has not welded them more firmly into the conviction that his sterling integrity, broad ability and pure mindedness would make him an ideal candidate, yet since the majority has spoken in favor of Mr. Johnson's ideas, The Democrat will use every effort in its power to advance these ideas and their embodiment—the Cleveland reformer—into a victorious issue at the November election.

The Pittsburg Post correctly states the situation when it says there will be a big fight in Ohio this fall. Tom Johnson has always been a winner against Republican odds, whether as a candidate for Congress or for mayor of Cleveland. He has a way of beating down and hammering out Republican inates, but that we are taught, is a majorities even when that party is led by the redoubtable Hanna. That will be the experience of the November election.

PRESIDENTIAL DEAD-HEADING.

(Pittsburg Post)

The discussion about who defrayed the expenses of the tour of the President to the Pacific coast has gone on apace, but with great moderation. A friend representing the President takes up the subject in defense in the New York Tribune, and it is an admission that the President has been traveling about the country with a large party of friends, assistants and clerks, without paying railroad fares and without paying for the costly entertainment provided by the companies in the way of food and refreshments. The defense made by the President is "that he could hardly be expected to defray the cost of the special train out of his own private purse." The railroad corporations did that, and it amounted to a considerable sum. The only defense attempted is that the President's predecessors established the custom of "dead-heading," or at least some of them did. The New York Sun in discussing the question points forcibly to the Federal law on the subject, the latest of which was the President's own corporation and "publicity" act; signed by him in February last, and which declares:

Section 3—That whenever the interstate commerce commission shall have reasonable ground for belief that any common carrier is engaged in the carriage of passengers or freight traffic between given points at less than the published rates on file, or is committing any discriminations forbidden by law, a petition may be presented alleging such facts to the circuit court of the United States sitting in equity having jurisdiction.

The same law makes it the duty of United States district attorneys to prosecute violators of the statute. Some persons are exempted from the penalties of the law, but Federal officials are not. The President is sworn to enforce the law, but in reality he became a party to its violation. It is advised to prevent such scandals that Congress should appropriate money ample to defray the expenses of these electioneering tours, for in reality that is what they amounted to. They had in view the Republican National Convention, and were intended in the interest of Candidate Roosevelt to influence its action.

THE AMERICAN FARMER.

17,000,000 dairy cows.
10,000,000 bales cotton.
17,000,000 head horses.
18,000,000 meat cattle.
62,000,000 head of sheep.
63,000,000 head of swine.
460,000,000 bushels of oats.
470,000,000 bushels of barley.
650,000,000 bushels of wheat.
2,900,000,000 bushels of Indian corn.
20,500,000,000 dollars' worth of farm products.

The American farmer is a factor in the great whirl of industrial prosperity. The above pyramid represents him in the chief products of last year. It may vary a little from year to year, but the figures are near to a good average. It is annually of value enough to buy all the crown jewels of the world, and a good deal more.

We may be indebted to the manufacturer of the machines and commodities which constitute the clock work of civilization: we are indebted to many classes of men in the innumerable lines of business, but the farmer stands first as a producer of the products which constitute the actual basis of life.

When we neglect the interests of the farmer, we neglect our own.

It is pretty evident that the financial circles, taking New York and Wall street as an illustration, are unfriendly to President Roosevelt. Leading papers, representing financial sentiment, place on his shoulders the responsibility for the decline in stock securities. There is undoubtedly a strong anti-Roosevelt feeling in New York and there is no telling to what extent it may crop out in the nomination and election. It may be the speculative element in business in which it originated, but that we are taught, is a majority even when that party is led by the redoubtable Hanna. That will be the experience of the November election.

use the business conditions of the country as part of their political capital. If it has created, as loudly claimed, that the prosperity of the country was made by the Republican party, that party must also shoulder the reverse side, and accept the slump in stocks and the depreciation of a thousand or so of millions as an incident of its career. At any rate this tremendous depreciation in values cannot be changed to the Democrats.

It has been demonstrated that the opposition newspapers have been very poor prophets so far as Tom L. Johnson is concerned, says the Cleveland Record. Whatever they say is about to happen, never comes. They cannot "call" him worth a cent. Those who do not try to understand what is doing lose sight of the fact that elections are won only by having the people with you and that Tom has a remarkable faculty for getting the voters to thinking his way. There has been the worst lot of foolish politicians here in Cleveland who have ever been seen. When the votes are counted it is seen that the Republicans have not turned out and that the independents have lined up with Johnson. So will it be in a large degree in this state this fall. There will votes come to him from every corner. There will be many Republicans who will conclude that it is not so bad a thing to have the Johnson principles prevail and they will be busy on election day and forget to vote. The independents, the Germans, radicals and all parties will flock to his standard.

The tribute the world pays Great Britain in interest and dividends is shown by official figures from London that are eloquent. The total amount of British money loaned and invested abroad and in India and the colonies was a little over 6,000 millions of dollars, on which the interest paid was $304,600,000, or about $107 per capita for every man, woman and child in England, Ireland and Scotland. It has taken a deal of figuring and investigation to arrive at these facts, but they explain why English imports exceed exports year after year and the country still increases its wealth.

Section 3—That whenever the interstate commerce commission shall have reasonable ground for belief that any common carrier is engaged in the carriage of passengers or freight traffic between given points at less than the published rates on file, or is committing any discriminations forbidden by law, a petition may be presented alleging such facts to the circuit court of the United States sitting in equity having jurisdiction.

Of the State Campaign Will Be at Akron, Wednesday Night, Sept. 9—Bryan Going to Europe, But Will Speak for Johnson.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 4—The Democratic state campaign will open on September 9 in Akron. Mayor Johnson was working on the campaign plans yesterday and the itinerary for the first week was completed. From Akron, where the grand opening will be held next Wednesday night, the tent will be moved to Wadsworth on Thursday.

"No one can come in contact with Bryan without being convinced that he is devoted to securing what he believes will be best for the masses of the people upon whom the burdens of government most harshly bear, and, recognizing that my sympathies are precisely the same, the fact that we differ at some points as to methods and measures did not stand for a moment in the way of his cordial endorsement of me."

THE DAVIS FAMILY.

The second annual reunion of the Davis family was held at Idlewilde Park on Wednesday, Augst 26, and was well attended by the members of the family. The day was spent in having a good social time, which was seasoned with a sumptuous dinner, which was heartily partaken of by all present. The assemblage was then called to order by the temporary chairman T. C. Jury, who acted in place of the president, death having taken him away. A program consisting of recitations, etc., was carried out after which the biography of the Davis family was read by Mr. Joseph Davis.

This family ranks among the early settlers of the country. Samuel Davis came to this section in 1768 and settled north of where Newark now stands. Not being satisfied with the ills he soon sold out and purchased another place near where Jacksontown stands, and lived there until death claimed him at the age of 85 years.

An election of officers was held which resulted as follows: President, Joseph Davis; secretary, J. P. Davis. It was decided to hold the next reunion at Idlewilde Park.

WEDDING

Of Prof. N. P. Yeardley's Daughter Will Take Place at Parkersburg, W. Va., Sept. 30.

The Parkersburg, W. Va., News announces the approaching wedding of Prof. N. P. Yeardley's daughter as follows. Mr. Yeardley is instructor in music in the Newark public schools: The month of September promises many social events that are calculated to launch the society lovers in a merry whirl after a summer that has been given over to entertainments of the most informal nature.

But the event that will probably be of the most interest to younger society people will be the marriage of Miss Vera Yeardley and Dr. Homer B. Dague of Parkersburg.

The prominence of these two young peoples gives exceptional interest to the event, as they are both closely identified with a large circle of young people who have had a very delightful time among themselves for several seasons.

The marriage will be solemnized on Wednesday afternoon, September 30; at the home of the bride's parents on Ann street. Only the members of the families of the bride and groom will be present at the ceremony.

Miss Yeardley is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson B. Yeardley, and has always been considered one of the very prettiest girls in Parkersburg, and one who possesses many fine traits of character that have endeared her to her associates in a marked degree. Miss Yeardley has also been portante, and Page was satisfied. His duties, besides twisting the old hand brake, required him to help load wood on the Painesville & Ashtabula railway. Sept. 1, 1853. OHIO

IS RICH IN EVERYTHING THAT MAKES NATION GREAT.

Secretary of the Treasury Shaw Mentioned a Few in His Speech at State Fair Friday.

Columbus, Sept. 4—This was Republican day at the Ohio State Fair. The operators of the day were Secretary of the Treasury L. M. Shaw, who appeared as the personal representative of President Roosevelt, and Myron T. Herrick, Republican candidate for governor. Secretary Shaw said in part:

"Ohio is rich in everything that makes the nation great, agriculture, minerals, manufacturing, commerce and politics. It annually grows more cereals than 80,000,000 could consume in seven months if placed exclusively on a cereal diet, has 10,000,000 domestic animals, 9,000 miles of railway, is bounded by 450 miles of navigable river and 200 miles of lake front, ranks first in the production of petroleum, third in natural gas, fourth in coal, and there is unloaded upon her shores more iron ore than is produced by any one commonwealth, nation or empire on the globe."

Unpleasant though the opinion be, agriculture has not kept pace with some other industries. Do not misunderstand me. Production may have increased with other lines, but I refer to the economies of agriculture. To illustrate: You produce a fat pig or steer. They are exposed to many storms and are somewhat wastefully fed. The carcasses are their owner could not tell whether they had cost to produce, three cents or six cents per pound. But when these are marketed waste ceases. Every possible product is saved and it is known just what each has cost.

Yonder is an oil well. A few years ago only the kerosene was saved. Now more than score of by-products are such a close margin that heavy taxes saved. There is no excuse for land deteriorating. The by-products of the use at present. A license system is count-

Baseball Saturday, Sunday, Monday.

The lovers of baseball will have an opportunity of seeing the Idlewild team in three games, beginning Saturday, with the Euclid, the crack amateur aggregation of Cleveland. These games are scheduled to afford baseball patrons the best kind of amusement, as the Euclids are playing a game which will require the best the local team has in stock to defeat.

It was necessary to set the Euclid as they were the only first class team available for the Sunday and Labor Day dates. Many clubs wanted these dates in Newark, but it was thought best to go to the extra expense of getting a team that has to travel a long distance to get here, than to book an inferior team. The Euclids are good fielders and great hitters, and these games should be well patronized.

The games beginning Sunday will hereafter be called at 3 o'clock owing to the fact that the days are becoming much shorter. Saturday's game will be called at the usual hour, 3:30.

"Lefty" Snyder Makes Good.

"Lefty" Snyder went in the box for Columbus against Kansas City Tuesday, and pitched the last three innings blanking the Cowboys, who were beaten 10 to 0. Wagner pitched the first six innings. Only one hit in the three innings was made off Snyder.

Idlewild Staff Team Victorious.

The Idlewild Park staff baseball team defeated the druggists at baseball 12 to 11 Thursday afternoon. The game was close and exciting and was won in the last half of the ninth inning when Manager W. D. Harris drove Hixson over the plate with a great hit to left field. Harry LaVeall and Clarence Parker of the Beggar Prince Opera company, played good ball in left field and at third base respectively, LaVeall making several great catches.

Ernest Johnson at second base played the best game for the druggists.

The batters were: Idlewild-Russell, Sites, Hixson and Russell; Druggists-Kinsey and Dickinson.

REMORE

Caused Smith's Mind to Fail and He Jumped From Fourth Story to His Death.

Chicago, Sept. 4—Suffering from remorse for having gone on a strike against the employer for whom he had worked for 25 years Jacob B. Smith threw himself from the fourth-story window of his home at 109 Illinois street yesterday. He struck the sidewalk and was instantly killed.

Smith, who was President of the Cooks' Union, had been chef at Thompson's restaurant for a quarter of a century. He went on a strike when the hotel and restaurant employees were called out two months ago, taking the entire kitchen force as well as the waiters with him.

The strike failed and Smith lost his position. Then came days of worry and remorse.

"The strike was a mistake; a sad mistake," Smith admitted to his friends.

Within the last week Mr. Smith's friends had noticed symptoms of a failing mind, and it is thought that his suicide yesterday was the act of an insane man. Twice in the last few days his eighteen-year-old daughter Ada had discovered him crawling out on the fire escape, but had persuaded him to return.

MRS. JAMES C. BAKER SECURES AN INJUNCTION

Restraining Her Husband from Disposing of Property—Realty Transfers—Court News.

Jane Baker, by her attorneys, Smythe & Smythe, has commenced a suit in the Common Pleas Court to enjoin her husband, James C. Baker, to enjoin him from incurring or disposing of any of the property belonging to the plaintiff, or from interfering with the plaintiff in the possession or control thereof.

The parties who are residents of Granville township, are well known. The plaintiff says that her husband, by force and violence compelled her to leave her home, and that a separation now exists between them. She also says that she is the owner of a small farm in Granville township, together with a lot in King's addition, in Newark, and a considerable amount of personal property; that the defendant is addicted to intemperance and is about to sell and dispose of the personal property and to convert the sales to his own use; that he is in possession of the farm, which he forcibly holds without her consent, and assumes to manage and control said farm. The plaintiff says that all the personal property, consisting of hay, corn, live stock, household goods, etc., which he is about to sell, belongs to her. She asks the Court for an order authorizing her to rent and control said real estate or to sell the same and collect the rents and purchase money, and to make all necessary contracts therefor. A temporary injunction, as prayed for, was granted by Judge Seward

SUSPENDED

From a Live Wire Was the Lineman, Who Was Nearly Cooked to Death By Electricity.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 4—Near Woodruff Place Willis Ramsey, a lineman for the Central Union Telephone company, was burned almost to death by a live wire. For fully 10 minutes he hung by his feet to the wire and burned before his associates could rescue him.

Ramsey was sitting on a small bridge suspended from a cable. The other linemen were in the street. Suddenly there was an agonizing scream and looking up they saw Ramsey hanging by his feet, his clothing on fire. He had touched a live wire. The shock knocked him from his seat, but as he fell backward his feet caught on the wire and kept him from falling to the ground.

Great difficulty was experienced in rescuing him as there were no ladders with which he could be reached. Two linemen finally ran up the poles between which he was suspended and working their way out over a cable they threw a rope around him by which he was lowered. It was found that the flesh was cooked from his feet. He was rushed to the hospital, where it was thought life might be saved by amputating both legs.

OXYGEN

Carried by Prof. Tight and Party to Sustain Life While Reaching Top of Mt. Sorata.

The Advocate on Thursday announced that Prof. W. G. Tight, formerly of Granville, now president of the University of New Mexico, had succeeded in reaching the summit of Mt. Sorata, the highest peak in the Andes in company with the noted mountain climber, Miss Annie Teek, and two Swiss guides.

Prof. Tight's purpose in making the ascent was mainly to find remains of a pygmy city, believed to be buried high up on the mountain side, and about which weird stories are told.

Before sailing from New York last June Miss Peck said the successful ascent of Mt. Sorata would be the crowning event of her life. Five thousand dollars was spent in making the expedition the best equipped of its kind, the party being taken to provide for every obstacle met by men who have attempted to climb the mountain.

In the equipment were five oxygen tanks, one for each member of the party, and an extra tank for emergencies. There were made of rubber, to be carried on the shoulders. Each had a capacity of 10 gallons. Prof. Tight carried an apparatus for manufacturing oxygen. The party depended for food mainly upon parched maize, beans, and native wine, but also carried a supply of condensed foods, including cheese, the food of the

Steps Taken to Organize Strong Team

A number of foot ball enthusiasts met in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night and effected a preliminary organization of the Y. M. C. A. foot ball team. Rollin A. The boys consider themselves fortunate to have Mr. Smith with them in this capacity this year.

For an hour the duke kept Anton at the game. Anton was so preoccupied with the game that he scarcely knew one card from another. Finally he showed his suffering so plainly that the duke gave up an amusement that was becoming painful and let his prisoner go, though he jokingly warned him in future to be less open in his appointments.

At 12 o'clock Anton rushed into his house wondering whether he would find Vittoria or his wife dead. He found them both lamenting over the body of his favorite hound. The moment he saw that Vittoria was safe he sank senseless into a chair.

Lucia had come in and found Vittoria waiting for her. Presently Lucia went into the room where luncheon had been set out to find the dog dying and the wineglass empty. She called her friend and they both suspected the wine had been poisoned. When Anton came in excited and fell in a swoon both knew that he had attempted to kill his wife.

Lucia banished her husband from her forever. Vittoria reported the matter to the duke, who permitted Anton to leave Italy. He lived but a short time, being killed in a duel. Lucia took for her second husband the young noble who had been instrumental in laying bare Anton Carpi's intention.

The most loathsome and repulsive of all living things is the serpent, and the vilest and most degrading of all human diseases is Contagious Blood Poison. The serpent sinks its fangs into the flesh and almost instantly the poison passes through the entire body. Contagious Blood Poison, beginning with a little ulcer, soon contaminates every drop of blood and spreads throughout the whole system. Painful swellings appear in the groins, a red rash and copper colored splotches break out on the body, the mouth and throat become ulcerated, and the hair and eye brows fall out; but these symptoms are mild compared to the wretchedness and suffering that come in the latter stages of the disease when it attacks the bones and more vital parts of the body. It is then that Contagious Blood Poison is seen in all its hideousness. The deep eating abscesses and sickening ulcers and tumors show the whole system is corrupted and poisoned, and unless relief comes soon this serpent disease tightens its coils and crushes out the life. The only antidote for the awful virus is S. S. S. It is nature's remedy, composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. S. S. S. destroys every vestige of the poison, purifies the blood and removes all danger of transmitting the awful taint to others. Nothing else will do this. Strong mineral remedies, like mercury and potash, dry up the sores and drive in the disease, but do not cure permanently. CARBOLIC ACID

Taken By Edward Feldner Early Friday Morning
Quickly Caused Death--A Well Known Cook
Was a Victim of His Own Mistake.

Edward Feldner, one of the best known men in Newark, is dead at his home on South German street, as the result of his own mistake.

Feldner was to have gone to work Friday morning at the Warden hotel as a cook, and told his wife on Thursday night to call him early so as to get to work on time. Mrs. Feldner aroused her husband at 4:30 o'clock, and he got up and went to the back porch where she heard him washing, after which he came into the house and went to a cupboard in the kitchen, where he always kept a vial of whisky. The next Mrs. Feldner heard was a groan, and hurrying to her husband's side, was horrified at his condition. Swinging backward and forward, a bottle clamped tightly in his hand he gasped "My God, what have I done? Lay me down quick, I am dying."

The woman assisted her dying husband to a bed and hurried a messenger for a doctor, as she immediately knew he had swallowed carbolic acid.

He was a member of Roland Lodge 305 and the funeral will probably be held under there auspices, the time not having yet been set.

In five minutes, before any assistance could be given the suffering man, he died, never speaking another word, but suffering intense agony. Coroner C. F. Legge was notified, but as there is no suspicion of suicide his verdict will undoubtedly be death by accident.

Feldner was about 60 years of age and leaves a wife and large family of children. About three weeks ago a 16 year old son, fell under the cars and had his right leg cut off at the knee.

The deceased came to Newark about 20 years ago, and was considered the most expert chef in the city. He has been employed at every hotel in Newark and until recently was cooking at Buckeye Lake, and Chicago Junction.

For several years he conducted a large restaurant on the North Side of the public square.

He was a member of Roland Lodge 305 and the funeral will probably be held under there auspices, the time not having yet been set.

Washingon, Sept. 4--The imports of raw silk in the fiscal year just ended were the largest in the history of the government. Statistics just compiled by the department of commerce and labor, through its bureau of statistics, show that for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1903, 15,271,340 pounds of unmanufactured silk, valued at $50,011,119 were imported, as compared with 14,200,000 pounds in 1902, and 10,400,000 in 1901. From this silk American manufacturers will make finished products valued at over $125,000,000.

Of the manufactured silk imported practically one-half comes from Japan.

Italy furnished nearly $13,000,000 worth, the Chinese empire $5,900,000, France $2,200,000.
